A "He is a nice mature horse, a good temperament and mover. We have only had him for 6 weeks so he is playing 'catch up'. Hoping he will be a 2-year-old."

B "I have two Indesatchel 2-year-olds, both have good temperaments, are straightforward good rides. I like them both, they have quality and are going well."

C "The one I have is straightforward, a good eater and with good attitude. I am pleased with her."

D "Strong, I couldn't be happier. Indesatchel is one I would put up in front of most other first season sires that I have. I think he will be early, he is going very well."

E "We have two, they both look sharp and early and are both free-moving individuals. Very racey with good attitudes."

F "She has a good temperament, is a good looker and is athletic. She has been very good, we'll bring her along gently."

G "Has a good temperament, a quality filly. Looks a good 2-year-old. Great moving filly."

H "He is an early type, quite sharp, with a good temperament."

I "The one out of Charlie Girl is a big, strong colt. He's developing nicely and will run early April, showing a good attitude to the game. The colt out of Beauty is maturing well, very straightforward and is likely to run late April or early May."

J "We have two, the first is showing plenty of speed and both have a great attitude. The other came to me a little later and is progressing very well. I will be looking for any Indesatchels at the future Breeze Up Sales."

K "He is a nice horse. A good, mature, excellent mover with a very good attitude. He could run in May. He looks like his father. I have kept a share in him myself as I do like him."

L "She is a nice filly, going along well and will be early enough. Great attitude."

M "I have three, all nice horses. They are straightforward, all good movers with good attitudes."
